

TOP10 Results - François d'Haene and Núria Picas are the 2014 UTWT Champions

After 10 stages, 10 races and 10 countries, the Ultra-Trail® World Tour just completed its first year. Rich in new encounters, discoveries and travels, hundreds of runners are pleased to have participated in the first edition. Of course there are fast runners, the best, those seeking the title. But do not forget all the other adventure seekers who also enjoyed the tour, which allowed them to run on the most beautiful trails in the world together with the best trail-runners on the planet. A full house during the Awards Ceremony at the "Forum des Images" in Paris will bring many of them together again to celebrate the closing of the first edition in Paris on November 19th. In the presence of the UTWT Champions, many other runners and race organizers!

Looming on the horizon of 2015 ..will there be new races? Will there be changes after the experiences of the first edition? Find out in Paris on November 19th.

If 10 is the figure of the year thinking of the number of countries covered, the top 10 men and women are a true representation of the internationality of the UTWT. No less than 13 nationalities are represented with Spain and France in the lead, followed by Australia.
